Lake Erie Gala Oct 28-Nov 1

from Erie Sisters and Brothers

The 2015 Lake Erie Gala, sponsored by the Erie Sisters and Brothers, will be held at the Avalon Hotel Oct. 28-Nov. 1. The event is moved up from our traditional week before Thanksgiving this year, to lessen the possibility of the kind of severe weather we had last year that blocked members from Buffalo and Canada. This year, being centered around the week of Halloween, the Gala will naturally be Halloween themed. Registration will open Wednesday morning, and our first event will be cocktail hour and dinner at Molly Branigan's, followed by bowling. Tours kick off Thursday morning, and will include a tour of the catacombs below Union Station, aka BrewErie. Our group had the first tour of the underbelly of the terminal years ago as part of a Gala tour after several years of begging to see it. If you've never seen it, it could fit right into one of those "paranormal experience" shows. Other legs of the Thursday tour include Fuhrman's Cider Mill, Arundel Cellars, and Penn Shore Winery. evening will welcome back illusionist Cliff Hopkins, who performed for us in 2011 and gave a terrific show.

Friday's tour lineup visits Grape Discovery Center, McClurg Museum, lunch at Brazil's, and Five and Twenty Spirits, all in Westfield NY. From there the tour concludes at Burch Farms in North East before returning to the Avalon. The annual Glitter Ball has been moved to Friday night, instead of our traditional Saturday night, and all meals at the Avalon throughout the Gala are Halloween themed. Saturday night, being Halloween, we will have a Halloween party with cash prizes, and is open to the public. Our lighting engineer, Jennifer Lucas, is providing lights and effects throughout the event. Jennifer owns a large lighting company, and has done the lightshow for the Detroit Lions Thanksgiving Day half time the past 2 years, and has the contract for this year's game as well.

All in all, this year's Lake Erie Gala is shaping up to be a truly Eerie event. For registration and more information, visit the Erie Sisters and Brothers website at <http://eriesisters.ning.com> or contact president

Pride Fest Recap

from NW PA Pride Alliance

Downtown Erie blazed rainbows on Saturday, August 29, as over 300 members of the LGBT community and their allies celebrated at the Pride Fest and Parade organized by NW PA Pride Alliance.

The day began with the Pride Parade, which stepped off from the Zone Dance Club, 133 W 18th St, Erie PA. Parade units included Erie Gay News, NW PA Pride Alliance, Erie Sisters & Brothers Transgender Support Group, reigning Miss Erie 2015 Valerie Valentino, American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) NWP Chapter, LBT Women, Greater Erie Alliance for Equality (GEAE), Community United Church, Ladyfest Erie, Northwestern High School GSA, Keystone Progress, and Unitarian-Universalist Congregation of Erie.

The parade rolled north on State Street, ending at Griswold Park. To celebrate the 20th anniversary of the first "Family Portrait" in October of 1995 on the steps of the Erie County Courthouse, a group photo was taken.

The keynote speaker of the event was Pennsylvania Physician General Dr. Rachel Levine, the first openly-transgender state level cabinet member confirmed in the U.S. Dr. Levine was introduced by Pennsylvania State Senator Sean Wiley of the 49th Senatorial District. Both the Senator and Physician General spent the afternoon at the Pride Fest following their speeches, enjoying the Erie community and speaking to community members.

The event was hosted by drag queen Lovin' Heart and DJ Tony G, along with assistance from their stage manager Jessica Pierce. Entertainment was provided by a variety of performance artists: Drag queens Misty Michaels Kall (Miss Erie 2011 and host of the Zone Diva shows), Sasha Alexxander, Taylor Morgan (Miss Erie 2005), Angelica Arkett, and Valerie Valentino (current Miss Erie); local vocalist and songwriter Bob Bearfield played an acoustic guitar set, and the show concluded with electronic dance musician Billy Winn.

Following Winn's performance, a pair of young women became engaged with a surprise, on-stage proposal.

In addition to the entertainment, attendees had a variety of vendors and information tables to browse. The event was attended by representatives of many local health agencies, non profits, LGBT groups and multiple vendors. Adagio Health, ACLU NW PA,
