4th Annual PA Youth Action Conference

from Pennsylvania Student Equality Coalition

The fourth annual Youth Action Conference, Pennsylvania's largest LGBTQ youth conference, will be held at Indiana University of Pennsylvania in Indiana, PA from February 26th to March 1st. The 2015 YAC is dedicated to "Cultivating New Possibilities for Rural LGBTQ Youth." This conference will focus on pressing issues facing young rural Pennsylvanians, and toward the empowerment of a generation of rural LGBTQ youth leaders in our state.

Students and youth advocates are invited from all areas of the commonwealth for this landmark meeting. We highly encourage LGBTQ student groups from high school and university communities to join us. Our keynote speaker is Mike Fleck, who became the first openly gay legislator in Pennsylvania in December 2012. Nationally renowned gender and sexuality therapist Dr. Michele Angello will lead an all-conference session.

There will be over 20 conference sessions on youth-led activism, building LGBTQ affirming schools and communities, and other issues directly impacting

Steve is retiring from the UUCE, where he has served since 2005. His last Sunday at the UUCE will be Jan. 18. Steve has been an ardent and loving supporter of the Erie area's LGBTQ community, and we are posting on our website a gallery of his participation in various local events over the past decade. ## Focusing with Art Making for Emotional Self Healing Jan 25

from Expressive Therapies Center

When we experience trauma, grief, stress, or other emotions, those feelings are stored in our physical bodies, often causing headaches, tiredness, and body aches. Focusing is a gentle yet powerful skill for tapping into your body's wisdom to make positive changes in your life. Focusing is a way of listening to your body with compassion, without assumptions or judgment. In this Jan 25 workshop, we will learn more about focusing, practice listening to ourselves and creating visual art and/or writing as a way to further explore what we are hearing. $30 per person, 3-5PM. ## Theology on Tap

from Jodi

Theology on Tap is an opportunity to discuss spiritual matters and your relationship with/to the Divine. It is a laid back discussion as we gather around a table at a local bar, drink in hand, to share our experiences, ask our questions and explore our faiths. And yes, that is plural! While the majority of those meeting have some sort of Christian background, we are welcome people of all faiths (or no faith) to come and participate in the discussion. We are not associated with any place of worship, and we are not out to convert anyone. We simply want to learn from each other and deepen our own respective faiths.

The next Theology on Tap will be Wednesday, January 14 7 p.m. at the Plymouth Tavern, 1109 State, Erie PA. (probably in Garden Room or back bar. If you are new, you may want to call first to know where to look.)

For more information, call 814-724-9775.

2014 Gala glitters

from Melanie Shubitowski – Erie Sisters President and Gala Director

The 2014 Gala took place Nov 19-23 at the Avalon Hotel in Erie. The event is sponsored by Erie Sisters.

This year's event began with dinner and bowling night on Wednesday.

The 2014 Gala celebrated the beginnings of the Lake Erie Gala on Thursday with a tour to Cambridge Springs, highlighting this year's theme, "A Return To Riverside". The Riverside Inn was the original site of what would become the annual Lake Erie Gala. The bus trip also included tours of Campbell Pottery and Sprague Brewery, with dinner and entertainment at the historic Riverside Inn.

Friday's events included a bus tour to Quincy Cellars and Sensory Wineries in Ripley, New York. At the conclusion of our winery visits, the bus returned to Erie for lunch at the Colony Pub and Grill, followed with time for shopping at the stores at the Colony Plaza. After dinner Friday evening, we were treated to the comedy duo, Dueling Pianos, historically a favorite among long-time Gala participants. Friday's entertainment continued through the night at Benjamin's Pub in the Avalon for a Disco dance.

Saturday saw a fashion show put on by volunteers of the Gala, followed by time for shopping with the many vendors that set up at the Avalon for the event. Saturday evening capped the event with our annual Glitter Ball, with music by DJ Brad Kepler and lighting by Erie Sisters Secretary, Jennifer Lucas, who supplied the lighting for the event. Jennifer, herself, could not however be present, as she was being honored for the second consecutive year with providing the light show at the upcoming Thanksgiving day football game in Detroit between the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Bears. She was in Detroit, making preparations for that show.

Sunday morning was the time for tearful goodbyes as we said farewell to dear friends over the morning brunch.

While we had anticipated record setting attendance this year, our hopes were thwarted somewhat by the unusual weather that had hit the Buffalo area with as much as seven feet of snow. Many of our friends from the Buffalo area were unable to attend, as were a number of people intending to come down from Canada, only to find the border closed with the heavy snowfall. Despite these setbacks, the Lake Erie Gala still experienced a better than average attendance for the event, with many proclaiming it to be the best ever. Also making a big contribution was our first time event photographer, Destinee Davis, who took photos during the entire event and made them available for purchase on CDs. Destinee took the place of our long time photographer, Glenda Berkshire, who could not attend due to business commitments. All in all, the 2014 Lake Erie Gala was again a huge success, and we look forward to Gala 2015, which will take place November 4-8, next year.

The next issue comes out the night of Tuesday, Jan, 20, 2015, and we'll fold at 7 PM, as usual.
