Become a 2016 NW PA Pride Donor!

from NW PA Pride Alliance

As the Northwest PA (NW PA) Pride Alliance begins its first full year as a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, we are delighted to see how much we have grown. The support of individuals and organizations in our community has been the catalyst for furthering the Alliance's mission: Improving the visibility of the LGBTQIA community and facilitating communication and collaboration between groups and individuals. We are asking for your support in 2016 as we enter with a unified theme of "Invite, Unite, Ignite!"

Donors like you make it possible for the Alliance to organize, sponsor, and/or host events such as the Pride Festival and the Pride Picnic. The Alliance also participates in various community events to promote awareness of LGBTQIA issues, and supports the efforts and activities of other groups dedicated to the health and well-being of the LGBTQIA community.

To maximize the impact of your tax deductible contribution and to be included on promotional materials, please send donations by Friday, April 22, 2016. Checks should be made payable to NW PA Pride Alliance, Inc. See our web site at <http://www.nwpapride.org> for details on donor levels.

The Laramie Project at SUNY Fredonia

from Paul W. Mockovak SUNY Fredonia and the Tectonic Theater Project.

The SUNY Fredonia Department of Theatre and Dance will present The Laramie Project and its epilogue between Feb. 25 and March 5.

About the play: In October 1998 Matthew Shepard—a gay university student—was kidnapped, severely beaten and left to die, tied to a fence on the outskirts of Laramie, Wyoming. Five weeks later, Moisés Kaufman and fellow members of the Tectonic Theater Project went to Laramie, and over the course of the next year, conducted more than 200 interviews with people of the town. From these interviews they wrote the play The Laramie Project, a chronicle of the life of the town of Laramie in the year after the murder. The Laramie Project is one of the most performed plays in America today.

The Laramie Project: Ten Years Later will also be presented. It is an epilogue and a bold new work, which asks the question, “How does society write its own history?”

Contains Strong Language.
